Enjoying life is part of God s intention for us. One of the most important, personal and practical questions is this: How can I enjoy life more? This is the essence of the deep human quest. We are all engaged in a search for a more satisfying and enjoyable life. To enjoy life is really nothing else than conformity of our human nature with its intended purpose. Good Things To Be Thankfully Enjoyed! is the first message in a series of sermons entitled, Having An Enjoyable Life!, presented by Dr. Burke. The scripture is based on I Timothy 4:3: . .good things which God created to be thankfully enjoyed, and Matthew 11:16-19: The Son of Man came enjoying life. The second message in the series entitled, Three Ways To Enjoy Life More! is based on the scripture in II Corinthians 1:12-24, Your faith is firm enough-but we can work with you to increase your joy. The third message entitled, Enjoying Life Creates Good! is based on the scripture in I Thessalonians 1:1-8. A cheerful heart does good. (Proverbs 17:22).
