Not illustrated. 1920 Excerpt: . . . socialization of medicine and competition in the same mariner as other enterprises, including the press. If medicine is to be socialized, so should be all other call ings and commercial enterprises. We are, perfectly willing to accept the same condition--we want a square deal! In your scheme for socialization for medicine aula, of course, you state that public health servants (an accurate term), should be well paid, just as teachers ordinarily are well paid, (salary usually 75 to 125 per month). I must confess that your consideration is extremely generous. It requires about sixteen years schooling after leaving the grammar grades and an expense of about 20, 000 to fit you to receive the present government position or hospital staff position at 150 per month, or about a lifetime of service to get back money spent on schooling alone. No doubt there will be a rush...
