Excerpt: . . . 11 m. r. oh, voluntary, yes. in my bill, mr. evans, i wanted our r enzi service men and women to be able to opt out, and therefore the opt out feature makes it voluntary, whereas the existing policies that you see that have opt out features in them are voluntary programs that allow the individuals to get in or get out, and that the federal government does not mandate that you have to use this type of pay taken out of your salary to pay for that kind of a benefit. m. e. Well, to take it just one step further, there have been r vans veterans programs that have been voluntary in the past. When i got sworn into the marine Corps, the second day they deal with this issue of volunteering or taking...
